

The Atlanta Public School System Cultural Experience Project

One of the City of Atlanta's visions is that every student in the Atlanta Public School System will have an onsite cultural experience each year. Every student will have exposure to at least one arts venue each year in a way that directly connects to the Georgia Performance Standards and curriculum goals. The idea is "one grade, one venue, guaranteed. During the 2006-2007 school year, students in the Atlanta Public School System will experience the Imagine It! The Children's Museum, the Atlanta Botanical Garden, The Center for Puppetry Arts, the High Museum of Art, the Atlanta Cyclorama, the Atlanta Symphony, the Atlanta Opera, the Atlanta Ballet, the Chattahoochee Nature Center – Roswell, Fernbank Museum of Natural History, the Art Gallery – Clark Atlanta University, and the Alliance Theatre.
